

FEE

The fee for attendance at the Art Institute for the full session of nine weeks is $320. This amount includes all charges for tuition, room and board, the use of the College library, record collection, and equipment; also visiting of classes of the regular College summer session and the Music Institute, as well as attendance at concerts and performances of the Music Institute.

Participants for the full session will receive first consideration; participants for shorter periods will be accommodated as space permits. The fee for shorter periods will be for each week one-eighth of the overall fee, namely $40.00.

The fee is payable as follows: 25% upon notice of admission to insure reservation of accommodation; the balance on arrival.

A limited number of scholarships is available to talented students, artists, and teachers, who can show a need for financial support.

Address correspondence to

Black Mountain College Art Institute
Black Mountain, North Carolina.

SCHEDULE

As the time-table on page 13 shows, class and lecture courses are so arranged in time that the various fields and the teachers are distributed as equally as possible over the whole session of nine weeks.

The schedule will be arranged in such a way that directed class work will take place in the mornings (Drawing, Painting, Sculpture, General Design, Textile Design, Color).

The afternoons will be reserved for rest, private work, outdoor activities, workshop, voluntary participation in the College Work Program, also for individual advice and criticism.

Lectures, panels, discussions, will usually be held in the evenings.

During the last week of the session there will be an exhibition of work done at the Art Institute.